About the Speaker

Jack has been in the Financial Services Industry for over 30 years. He is well-known for his accomplishments in educating financial advisors and their clients to prepare to care for love ones who have been diagnosed with Alzheimer's Disease. Jack is passionate for raising awareness for Alzheimer's. He has made eradicating the disease that took his mother in 2004, a major part of his life's work. Jack's father, Frank Broyles (the legendary Arkansas Razorbacks football coach) wrote "Coach Broyles Playbook for Caregivers" on what their family learned about during their battle with the disease. Jack is the past Chairman for the Dallas Chapter of Alzheimer's Association from July 1, 2010-June 30, 2012. Jack has been speaking nationwide to financial advisors and their clients since 2012. Away from business, Jack lives in Dallas, TX, with his wife. Jack has 2 daughters, a son-in-law and 2 adorable grandchildren. Jack enjoys golf, tennis, and spending time with family and friends.

Seminar Overview

Alzheimer's Disease is like a Tsunami that is sweeping through our country. Every 66 seconds someone in America is diagnosed with Alzheimer's. Alzheimer's Disease is the 6th leading cause of death in America and the only disease in the top 10 we cannot stop, slow down or prevent. Americans spend more money annually on Alzheimer's and Dementia than any other condition including heart disease and cancer.

Jack has created a very compelling and powerful presentation designed to help educate us on:

- What is Alzheimer's Disease.
- How families are impacted by the disease.
- The staggering costs of the disease .
- The warning signs.
- The steps you need to take to protect your family.
